"Education is the key to the world" is the motto of the Frankfurt University of Applied Sciences (Frankfurt UAS). Internationality, diversity and social responsibility are our values. Ours is an institution dedicated to lifelong learning and an innovative research and development partner in the region. Our more than 16,000 students and 900 employees in teaching, research and central administration are responsible of it.

We are looking for candidates with an outstanding PhD who would like to contribute their extensive practical experience in the professional world to teaching and research at our university. The cornerstones of our educational institution are practical orientation, interdisciplinary training, internationality and regional integration. Excellent teaching and research are our aspirations.

Teaching and researching at a dynamic university for applied sciences in Faculty 4: Health and Social Work

The Faculty of Health and Social Work at Frankfurt UAS is one of the largest of its field in Germany. It represents the entire breadth and depth of social work from the bachelor to the doctorate level, and has been a forerunner in bringing the health professions into the academic realm. Social responsibility and interdisciplinary work are key facets to all of our related projects and are just as important to us as the close link between science and practice.

We are looking to fill the following position in Faculty 4: Health and Social Work beginning summer semester 2023 or winter semester 2023/24

Professor (W2 salary scale HBesG, Hessian Federal Civil Service Remuneration Act) in the following subject area:
Qualitative-empirical social research with a focus on migration and counselling

Tasks:
The professorship is mainly assigned to the BA "Social Work" (and there to the disciplinary group "Social Work") and the MA "Research in Social Work". It is to represent the field of qualitative-empirical social research in teaching and research. Further on it is to offer qualitative research methods, migration and counseling in various teaching formats (introductory events, teaching research seminars, research workshops) in the bachelor's degree courses in "Social Work" and in the master's degree course "Research in Social Work" and participate in the Doctoral Center for Social Work. Required is also the active participation in the research institutes, in particular at the Competence Center for Social Intervention Research (KomSI) and the Institute for Migration and Intercultural Communication (IMiK) of the Department of Social Work and Health, as well as the acquisition and implementation of your own third-party funded projects are desired.
Profile: You are a highly qualified personality with outstanding scientific and practical knowledge in the field of qualitative-empirical social research with a focus on migration and counselling. You have an excellent doctorate and in-depth knowledge of the application and teaching of qualitative-reconstructive methods of empirical social research with special consideration of migration studies and transnational perspectives. They represent the field of consulting in theory and practice. You have participated in the acquisition and implementation of international qualitative-empirical research projects and made important theoretical and methodological contributions to the implementation of innovative, reflective qualitative social research in the migration society. You are very well networked internationally and locally and have published relevant articles in the field. You have international teaching experience in interdisciplinary contexts.

Job requirements: In addition to being assigned to the aforementioned faculty, the post holder will become a member of one or both of the following interdisciplinary organisational units, in which it is expected that they make a professional contribution as a member of the professorship: School of Personal Development and Education (ScoPE), which deals with the personal development of students and the specific didactics of a university of applied sciences, and/or the HoST, which strengthens interdisciplinary research as a research transfer center.

We expect our professors to:

- Be active members of our institution and to continuously support the students.
- Participate in introductory courses, i.e., teach subjects at an introductory level in all the faculty’s degrees.
- Have a predisposition and inclination to research and secure third-party funding.
- Show gender and diversity competence.
- Participate in the institution’s international activities, including teaching in English.
- Participate in the interdisciplinary Studium generale.
- Contribute to the institution’s offer regarding further education, lifelong learning and e-learning.
- Take on responsibility regarding academic self-administration.
- Be willing to pursue further training and professional development in their field of expertise and in higher education didactics.
- Cooperate with other educational institutions in the region.
- Show commitment and initiative as expected from a performance-related position.

This is a permanent position. The first appointment as a professor is as a public-service employee on probation or with an unlimited employment contract with a 3-year long probation period.

Further official duties and requirements are listed under §§ 67-69, 75 and 76 of the Hessian Higher Education Act, found in www.hmwk.hessen.de (only available in German).

The position is open to all persons, irrespective of gender. The Frankfurt University of Applied Sciences would like to increase the proportion of women in areas in which they are underrepresented and thus applications from women are particularly welcome and will be treated with priority of they have the same qualifications and as long as there are no clear reasons which make a fellow applicant more suitable. Preference will be given to severely disabled applicants if they can provide equal qualifications.
