I travelled alot in my free time in the United Kingdom. I was able to to travel in London. The London Met does not really offer warm meal in their cafetaria, instead of sandwiches, coffee, snacks, and yoghurt. However, they were expensive. The University offers computer pools, Wi-Fi. The library in Holloway Road which is opposite from my flat was open until 12 am.

Studying at the Host University

a) How satisfied were you with classes at the host university?

Sehr zufrieden zufrieden unzufrieden sehr unzufrieden

b) How would you describe the academic standard of classes compared to Frankfurt?

Sehr viel anspruchsvoller Etwas anspruchsvoller Ähnlich wie in Frankfurt Etwas einfacher Sehr viel einfacher

c) Did you experience any difference in teaching methods/ class structure? / Which were the difference regarding your expectations and your experiences at the partner university? What surprised you, what should newly arriving students know? / How were the student services? / Was the fact, that you were an exchange student taken into account (by professors or other staff)? If so, how? / How were difficulties, which you or other exchange students may have met, handled by the partner university?

In compare to my university in Germany, we had to attend classes , do homeworks, and active in lessons. We were told not to use our mobile phone during the lesson. By contrast, in Germany it should be my students' own responsibility to pay attention to the lessons. From my own personal experience the professors mark the presentations personally. Regarding another issue during my group project work. I asked for a fair solution to solve the issue. However, it was ignored.
